

Claims Made for Money Taken from Federal Prisoners of War
Confined in Confederate Prisons

List Compiled by Claire Prechtel-Kluskens

(March 2015 edition)

“Claims Made for Money Taken from Federal Prisoners of War Confined in Confederate Prisons” (NM-28, Entry 81; National Archives Identifier 615449) is a record series in Record Group 249, Records of the Office of the Commissary General of Prisoners, 1861–1905, at the National Archives Building, Washington, DC.

For more information about these records, read Claire Prechtel-Kluskens, “The Rebs Took My Money!” NGS Magazine, Vol. 41, No. 2 (Apr.-June 2015).

To obtain copies of specific files, write to Archives I Reference, National Archives and Records Administration, 700 Pennsylvania Avenue NW, Washington, DC, 20408, or email archives1reference@nara.gov. Be sure to specify “Claims Made for Money Taken from Federal Prisoners of War Confined in Confederate Prisons (National Archives Identifier 615449),” claim number, and claimant’s name. Also include your name, postal mailing address, phone number, and email address.

The claims are arranged by number from 1 to 796. The claims are numbered 1 to 275, 275½, 276 to 634, 634½, 635 to 710, 711 [crossed out], and 711 to 796. In addition to being organized by claim number, they are also arranged in six different groups in rough alphabetical order by surname, as follows:

- Group 1, Claims 1 to 275, were approved by the Board.
- Group 2, Claims, 275½ to 397, were rejected by the Board.
- Group 3, Claims, 398 to 532, were on “General Mulford’s List” and rejected by the Board. These mostly consist of letters of inquiry received in 1865 concerning money, watches, rings, and other personal property.
- Group 4, Claims, 533 to 719, were received at the Office of the Commissary General of Prisoners and rejected by the Board, and consist of inquiries, affidavits, and other materials received in 1866.
- Group 5, Claims 720 to 776, were received by the Commissary General of Prisoners and rejected by the Board, and consist of inquiries and other materials received in 1866.
- Group 6, Claims 777 to 796, were received by the Commissary General of Prisoners “too late to be acted upon by the Board” or “after adjournment of the Board.”

Claims were likely given these file numbers after the completion of the Board’s work, as suggested by the fact that records in some files are marked with a “claim number” that is different than its final number.

Claims files are not extant for numbers 87-88, 90-95, 112, 328, 371, and 417. File number 417 was charged out to General Mulford in April 1868 and not returned. Claimants for files 87-88, 90-95, and 112 have been identified using “Register of Settled Claims for Money Taken from Federal Prisoners of War in
